

Useful Links And Resources For New Students

The following is a list of the most commonly needed websites and resources for new students. If you are looking for a site that is not listed here, use the UCSC A–Z index, at http://www.ucsc.edu/about/alpha\_index.asp, to find other sites of interest. Be sure to use this resource to find links to your department website.

MyUCSC Portal – your most important online resource: <http://my.ucsc.edu>

- Includes information about your academic record (grades, degree progress, advising summary, etc.) and is the site you will use to search for and enroll in classes, keep your contact information current, and track your academic progress. Be sure to check your “to–do” list.
- In November you can find your winter enrollment appointment time.
