

Learning Support Resources And Tutoring Services

UC Santa Cruz has many learning support services available to assist you. Review the available resources below and consider how these learning support resources will assist you in your academic endeavor and to reach your career goals. Plan to utilize the services you need to be successful and obtain the help you may need. Your college academic advisor can assist you with referrals as needed for services.

Learning Support Resources (explore the web sites for information):

- ❑ Modified Supplemental Instruction (MSI)
<http://www2.ucsc.edu/lss/msi.shtml>
MSI gives students the opportunity to learn together in small groups led by advanced Student Learning Assistants. MSI is guaranteed study/learning time facilitated by someone who has already been successful in their respective class.
- ❑ Coalition for Student Academic Success (CSAS)
<http://www2.ucsc.edu/csas/>
CSAS offers quarterly Academic Success Workshops to support your goals in persevering and succeeding at the University. All students are invited to attend.
- ❑ Academic Excellence Program (ACE)
<http://ace.ucsc.edu/>
This program brings together Science, Technology, and Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) students in small discussion sections that accompany the large math and science lectures. ACE will help you understand the lecture and text book through concept specific worksheets that you and your classmates work on as a team.
- ❑ Mathematics Department
<http://www.math.ucsc.edu/>
Check with the Mathematics Department for weekly afternoon/evening Drop-in Math Tutoring or to hire a private Math tutor.
