

Crown Welcome Week Teams

In keeping with our Evolution theme for Welcome Week we have given special names to each team based on animals found in the Galapagos Islands. It was his observations during travels in the Galapagos that led Charles Darwin to propose his Theory of Evolution.

The continuing students below have volunteered as orientation leaders to guide you through Welcome Week and help you adjust to your new community. If you're on Facebook you'll receive an invitation to join your team online. If you're not on Facebook that's okay; you can still contact them and get your questions answered.
